Recommending that the period one year spent in undergoing practical course by Mr Y Aswatha Narayana Rao, Temporary Assistant Engineer while he was a State Scholar in the College of Engineering Madras may on his confirmation be reckoned as qualifying for pension

The recommendation in connection with Mr Aswatha Narayana Rao does not seem to need as he secured a pensionable appointment under the Mysore Govt. He may therefore renew his recommendation after he is confirmed in his temporary appointment please

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

~~Bangalore~~ Mysore 26th May 1899

From

H J BHABHA ESQ,

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To The Secretary to the Government of Mysore in the General and Revenue Departments

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that Mr Y Aswatha narayana Rao BA BE Temporary Sub-assistant Engineer in the Shimoga Division was a state scholar of the Mysore Government studying for the BE degree examination in the college of Engineering Madras He passed the final college examination of December 1895 taking the second place and also the University BE examination and then underwent the practical course in the consulting Architects office Madras which he finished on the 31st December 1896 He was not able to secure an appointment in the Public Works Department Mysore till December 1897 though he had applied for employment during his practical course and soon after finishing it

Mr Aswathanarayana Rao now requests that the one years practical course from 1st January to 31st December 1896 may be counted as
